

Victor Valley College Women's Soccer

Coaching Staff

Assistant Coach: Adrienne Chavez
8th Season

Coach Chavez has been an Assistant Coach for the Victor Valley College women's soccer program since 1999. This season will be her 8th season with the program, during which time VVC has won one league championship (in 2000). Coach Chavez has been coaching with Head Coach Michael Bradbury here at VVC for five seasons, and has had a great time. VVC's record is a clear indication of the high degree of excellence displayed by Coach Bradbury.

Coach Chavez started playing soccer at 5 years of age. She continued into the club team brackets, then High School, and on into college.

She first became a member of the VVC women's soccer team in only its second season of existence.

Some honors earned by Coach Chavez:

AS A PLAYER:

Victor Valley High School:

- 1994 All CIF second team

Victor Valley College:

- 1998 All Conference player

AS A COACH (@ VVC):

Victor Valley College:

- 2000 Foothill Conference league champions
