

Victor Valley College Soccer

Coaching Staff

Head Coach: Michael Bradbury 6th Season

Overall Collegiate Record: 55-31-13

Conference Record: 35-14-9

Head Coach Mike Bradbury has in combination played, refereed, and coached soccer for the last 33 years. His soccer career started in England at age 4. His father, a military man, was stationed in England and Greece while he was a young boy. Growing up playing soccer in countries where it is a national pastime has greatly influenced his style and respect for the greatest game in the world.

At age 9 he returned to the United States and brought soccer with him. Coach Bradbury played soccer in the Hi-Desert during the mid to late 80's. He graduated from Apple Valley (during an era when Apple Valley Boy's High School Soccer won an incredible 9 consecutive San Andreas League Championships) High School in 1989 after a successful baseball and soccer career. He attended VVC 1989-1991 and played both baseball and soccer.

In 1992 Coach Bradbury joined the United States Marine Corps and served his country for 4 years. In 1996, with his Honorable Discharge in hand, he joined the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department where he works and patrols to this day assigned to the contract city of Apple Valley.

Coach Bradbury, currently the Girl's, Men's & Women's Soccer Head Coach at both Granite Hills (a local high school) and Victor Valley College, has a noteworthy track record and coaching career. He has led his high school program to six league champions in eight years. They won a CIF Southern Section Championship in 2006, CIF Runner-Up in 2008 and Regional Runner-Up. He has been awarded "Coach of the Year" at both the high school and collegiate level.

Coach Bradbury's commitment to excellence is unparalleled. His programs are recognized by universities around the country. He has successfully placed both high school and VVC College players on scholarship at universities in California, Minnesota
