- Recruitment must utilize outreach strategies designed to ensure that all qualified individuals, from all monitored groups, are provided the opportunity to seek employment with the district.
- Recruitment for administrative and faculty positions (full and part-time) may include advertisement in appropriate professional journals, job registries and newspapers of general circulation; distribution of job announcements to the EEO Registry, K-12 districts, two- and four-year colleges, and graduate schools where appropriate candidates might be enrolled; recruitment at conferences, fairs, and professional meetings; notices to institutions and professional organizations that primarily serve members of monitored groups that are underrepresented in the district.

This information shall be maintained in confidence and shall be used only for research, validation, monitoring, evaluation of the effectiveness of the plan, or as authorized by law.
- After the application deadline has passed, the initial applicant pool shall be analyzed to determine whether the projected representation has been achieved for monitored groups. - Once the qualified pool is formed, the pool must again be analyzed. If this analysis reveals adverse impact against any monitored group, the district may immediately, and before the selection process continues, consult with legal counsel to determine what, if any, corrective action is required by law.
