Preparation for Transfer to Brandman University’s
Accelerated Bachelor’s Degree Programs in the High Desert

Brandman (Chapman University System) offers B.A. degrees and teaching credential programs at their location near VVC. To transfer, complete the CSU GE (what we call “the pink sheet”), or IGETC (“the blue sheet”), plus any pre-major courses indicated below. Request GE Certification prior to transfer. Since Brandman requires only 36 upper division units, you may transfer in up to 88 units (note that Brandman may differ from CSU in what they accept). It is likely to your advantage to complete your Associate’s degree at VVC, within which you satisfy all GE and pre-major requirements for transfer, while maintaining a GPA of at least 2.0. For the most up-to-date information, please contact Chapman directly, at (760) 955-7555. The website is http://www.brandman.edu/victorvalley/.

B.A. in Applied Studies
Topics including organizational strategies, information technologies, leadership, cultural business perspectives, and sociological development.

Bachelor of Business Administration
Prepares students for career opportunities and advancement in a dynamic, global business environment. The BBA gives students and opportunity to choose an individualized set of general BBA electives or to specialize.

VVC Preparation: (Lower Division Core) BADM 101 or 103, 102 or 104; CIS 101; ECON 101, 102; MATH 120. (Upper Division Core) BADM 110, 117 or 118, 112. (Approved Electives) BADM 109, 113, 116, 122.

B.S. Computing Technology
Provides students with an Information Technology foundation emphasizing the latest practical technologies and transferable experiences in coherent application building modules. (Program only offered online)

VVC Preparation: CIS 206A&206B or 210; MATH 105/H105, MATH 120/H120; ECON 101, 102.

B.A. in Criminal Justice
Theoretical and applied knowledge in administration, methods of research, and analysis of various social, legal and penal systems, institutions and issues. Graduates often go on to further study in criminal justice, law school, or may enter the job market in areas such as law enforcement, court and paralegal occupations, corrections, and security.

VVC Preparation: AJ 101, 103, 132, 133 or ENGL 112; SOC 101. 3 units from AJ 102, 104, 127, 135, 145, 150 or 201.

B.A. in Early Childhood Development
Cross-disciplinary exploration of human development, education and early childhood. Examines cultural and social influences of the family and the community in the holistic development of young children.

VVC Preparation: CHDV 100 or PSYC 110 or PSYC 111; CHDV 106; CMST 105; ETEC 106; PE 105; PSYC 101/H101. ENGL 235 is an acceptable major elective.

B.A. in Legal Studies
Prepares students for careers in law, public administration, and civic and organizational management. Includes research, critical thinking and argumentation; relationships between law, power, democracy, punishment, rights and citizenship; historical foundations of the American legal order; understanding major Supreme Court decisions and the role social movements have played in the American legal order.

VVC Preparation: POLS 102/H102; SOC 101.

B.A. in Liberal Studies
Multiple Subjects Teaching Emphasis: For the individual desiring to teach in an elementary classroom.

VVC Preparation: CHDV 100 or PSYC 110/H110 or PSYC 111; ETEC 106; ENGL 235; HIST 115; PE 105; POLS 102/H102.

Select 9 units from one concentration, where available.

Concentration Social Science: SOC 101; choose one from HIST 103, 104, 130 or 131.

Culture and Media Studies Emphasis: For the individual with an interest in media arts, and cultural and historical studies. (online only)

VVC Preparation: CMST 105; POLS 102
B.A. in Organizational Leadership
Prepares students to become innovative members of the workforce and assume leadership roles within their chosen organization. Students learn how to diagnose organizational problems; develop critical judgment and interpersonal skills for group decision-making, creative problem-solving, and conflict resolution. Two emphases in the major: administration and communication.

VVC Preparation: 9 elective units chosen from BADM 100, 101, 102, 103, 104, 109, 110, 112, 116, 117, 118, 144; CHDV 239, 240; CMST 105, 106, 108; ECON 101, 102; MATH 120/H120; PSYC 204.

B.A. in Psychology
Valuable for a student’s growth as a person, as preparation for entering a career in one of the human services areas, or for pursuing graduate study. Each student’s major is individually designed, and includes a core of courses covering human development; history and theories of psychology; and statistics and research design.

VVC Preparation: PSYC 101/H101, 109, 213; MATH 120/H120. 6 elective credits from: PSYC 110/H110, 111, 121, 125, 204.

B.A. in Social Science
Designed both for the prospective teacher and for those who wish to pursue careers in a variety of policy-making areas, the Social Sciences major requires students to choose three areas of concentration.

VVC Preparation: PSYC 101/H101; SOC 101.

B.A. in Sociology
Sociology is the study of humanity’s diverse ways of interacting, and the kinds of social systems and institutions we build. Causes, characteristics, and consequences of group life, culture, community life, family patterns and relationships, social change, gender and ethnic relations, social class, mass media, and social movements. Sociology graduates typically move on to post-graduate degrees in sociology or social work, or seek employment in such areas as human resources, law enforcement, social work, youth work, urban planning, and others.

VVC Preparation: CMST 105; MATH 120/H120; SOC 101. One course from ANTH 101, 102, 105, PSYC 133, SOC 102, 103, 107.

Social Work Emphasis: One course from AJ 127, PSYC 110/H110 or 111, 125, 133, or 204.