12.1 2012 Accountability Report for Community Colleges
Submitted as an information item.

Virginia Moran presented the ARCC report and reported that this is Part 1 with the second presentation, the instructional response, taking place in March. The Accountability Report for Community College is a set of performance indicators required by the Legislature. The California Community College's System Office produces this report each year and disseminates it so that each college will use the information to improve. The report's objectives are to make policymakers, local college officials, and elected boards aware of system and college performance in six specific areas of achievement and to inform the public about overall system performance.

Trustee Brady arrived at 7:26 p.m.

Mark Clair introduced the ARCC indicators A-G.

Tim Johnston presented on the Student Services area and Peter Allan showcased the instructional side.

This presentation allowed the Board members an active participation and discussion opportunity and made them aware of the overall system performance.

Speakers will be timed electronically, and all speakers will be required to address the Board from the lectern. Only those who have been recognized by the Board President will be permitted to speak. State law prohibits the Board from addressing any issues not included on the agenda. (Board Policy #2350)
15. BOARD COMMUNICATION
At this time, the Board of Trustees will report on matters related to attendance at conferences, professional affiliations, and community involvement directly related to their functions as Board members.

Trustee Brady: attended CCLC workshop last month. Read aloud a letter his concerns regarding the accreditation process. This letter is available for review in the Superintendent/President's office.

Trustee Denson: reported on the CCLC workshop she recently attended in Sacramento. In addition, she attended the ACCT legislative conference in Washington, D.C. with Dr. O'Hearn and provided handouts to the Board which included a budget overview and federal legislative priorities. She is disappointed that the college continued on probation but it is happy that we didn't digress.

Trustee Pinkerton: no report

Trustee Henderson: the point on the letter from ACCJC is that they gave us until October which we should be able to knock out.

Monique Ballard: reported on the first day of classes, thanked the Board for the opportunity to attend the CCLC conference in Sacramento. ASB is preparing for their upcoming trip Washington, D.C. to attend the National Student Advocacy and Leadership conference. She thanked the Foundation for their efforts in expanding the classes.
