Crosswalk Pathways To College Charter School Teacher Honored by Teachers R Heroes

The Hesperia Leisure League Hall which normally caters to senior citizens was the unusual site for the delivery of this month's Teachers R Heroes award that was presented to Sherry Morean, 7th and 8th grade teacher at Crosswalk Pathways to College Charter School teacher. Ms. Morean was presented the award in front of a mixed audience that was made up of her students, several retired senior citizens, staff and friends.

As with all of the teachers selected for the honor, the person who nominated Ms. Morean's spoke highly of here love for teaching and her dedication to the success of her students. The nominator wrote, "Wow! What can I say about this teacher? She is awesome. She goes far beyond the call of duty such as staying after school everyday to help these students with tutoring and special activities. My child was failing until he got Ms. Morean and now he is an A, B, C, student."

She goes on to say, "This teacher makes me smile every morning when I drop off my kids. She is happy and excited about the day and gives encouragement to all students. No one gets overlooked. This woman gives each and every child the time and attention they need to succeed. I have never in all my years (with 8 children) seen this kind of selflessness. Please consider her, she is AWESOME!"

Teacher nominations may be submitted in the form of 500 words-or-less essays to www.vvc.edu. Anyone interested in making a nomination can go online to www.KATCOUNTRY1007.com, www.Y102FM.com, www.TheFox106.com, or www.Talk960.com, and find a link to the college's website.
