

Victor Valley College Press Release

Contact: Bill Greulich at 760-245-4271, Ext. 2225

For Immediate Release

November 15, 2006

Victor Valley College Puts Out a Call for Auditions

The Victor Valley College Theatre Department posted a call for auditions today for the Winter Session rock musical, TOMMY for Monday, November 20, and Tuesday, November 21, at Silverado High School's Performing Arts Center at 7 p.m. Students and any interested members of the community are invited to take part in this very complex and challenging show.

The show will be directed by Dr. Freddie Gold who formerly directed Man of La Mancha for VVC. The production features Dave Graham as Musical Director and David Rodriguez as Choreographer.

The production presents the opportunity for 30 to 35 people to become involved in the show. Two of the roles call for boys between the ages 7 or 8 and 10 to 12 years old.

(more)

People, who plan to audition for a role in the musical must dress comfortably and wear shoes that allow for movement.

Participants must also be prepared to sing 30 seconds of any song, and bring sheet music for the pianist if they want to be accompanied.

For more information, please contact the Theater or Music Department at the college by calling the campus at 245-4271, Ext. 2236.

###