JOB SUMMARY: The OB Technician performs a variety of patient care and clerical duties to assist and support the organization and function of the LDRP. Works cooperatively with and under the supervision of a Registered Nurse providing direct care to patient of various ages (neonate, adolescent, adult). Interacts with physicians, patients, families/significant others, hospital staff and community agencies in providing comprehensive care. Is responsible for completion and processing of the birth certificates, and “Declaration of Paternity” forms.

EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE, TRAINING
1. Successful completion of a Nursing Assistant, Medical Assistant, EMT, ROP, Paramedic Training Program or equivalent required.
2. BCLS (AHA) upon hire and maintain current.
3. Basic Fetal monitoring required 30 days upon hire.
* Nights Shift*

Apply At: http://www.dvmc.com/Careers.aspx