March 22-25, 30, 31 & April 1 @ 7:30 p.m. March 26 & April 2 @ 2:30 p.m. “A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum” V.V.C. Theatre Arts & Music Depts. 760-245-4271 ext. TIX (849) "Tragedy tomorrow, comedy tonight!" Broadway's greatest farce with music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim is light, fast-paced, witty, irreverent and one of the funniest musicals ever written – the perfect escape from life's troubles. “A Funny Thing Happened On The Way To The Forum” takes comedy back to its roots, combining situations from time-tested, 2,000 year old comedies of Roman playwright Plautus with the infectious energy of classic vaudeville. The result is a non-stop laugh-fest in which a crafty slave (Pseudolus) struggles to win the hand of a beautiful but slow-witted virgin courtesan (Philia) for his young master (Hero), in exchange for his freedom.

Yet this play is structured as the inverse of Hamlet; the title characters are the leads, not minor players, and Hamlet himself has only a small part. R&G inhabit a world completely beyond their comprehension. Unsure of where they are going (and even of who they are and where they come from), they depend upon others to give their lives meaning.
