15. BOARD COMMUNICATION

15.1 BOARD COMMUNICATION

Trustee Henderson congratulated the board for tonight’s meeting and coming together with the issues; Roger will keep the company in line; we are doing the best for our students; proud to be a member of the board and proud that we are working towards helping the students.

Trustee Tortorici reported that it was a slow month as a trustee, fast month as a person; attended for the first time the Dreamers, Visionaries and Leaders Award Ceremony as it was a positive learning experience, DVL is 8 years old and very well attended, they honored past and present leaders in black and Hispanic communities, annual event and encouraged the trustees to attend, nice that they select our college and theatre to give the awards; relative to the Ellucian contract wished the college, and the President good luck, will work as a team and resolve the issues very optimistically.

Student Trustee Galindo reported that they are preparing for ASACC (American Student Association of Community Colleges). Few topics: Pell Grants, Student Loans, Interest Rates, Federal Work Study, Funding American College Promise, Pre-Tax Dollars for Student Loans; thanked the board for approving the travel this evening under consent; only room in the hotel for 400 people to attend, nationwide; getting ready for the first week of school, welcome back week; second week of the semester is rush week; ASB will be attending the Alumni Hall of Fame on February 27th in support of Dr. Wagner and MUN; attended the Effective Trusteeship Workshop in Sacramento, learned the relationship between the board and her position, different perspective.

Trustee Brady thanked the board, sends a strong message of cohesiveness, and support for Dr. Wagner; has reached out to Justin for coffee, 2 sides to every story, still wants to have coffee with Justin; recognized Justin for his commitment to the school, CSEA, and to the cause; asked President Pinkerton to consider reaching out to Dr. David Morris as he thinks it would help the board with their relationship between the Academic Senate; requests that Robert Sewell make a presentation in April on our social media program; lost Professor Dr. Draper who was an AFT member and English Teacher; met Dr. Draper in 1994 through the Daily Press who was a ghost writer and wrote for a real estate publication, Dr. Draper is part of why Trustee Brady’s publication is successful, Dr. Draper passed away last month from pneumonia, wife Sharon, 11 children. Dr. Draper started in academics at Modesto College in 1964 and came to VVC in 1994, left VVC sometime in 2010; keeping him in his prayers.

Trustee Wood attended the County School Board meeting in Hesperia mostly geared for k-12, he was the only college trustee in attendance, interesting presentation; publicly commended three San Bernardino County School Districts that received the Golden Bell Award, Redlands, Hesperia, and Snowline, all three schools did different things, congratulations to the K-12 districts who won the awards; elaborated on his comments this evening that were not intended to blame for any wrong doings or shortcomings during the public comments under the Ellucian Contract; expressed that there are problems in the IT/MIS department and is not blaming anyone. Trustee Wood hopes that they will shine with this new leadership.

Dr. Wagner reported that he had received a letter from the Campus Police department dated January 29th commending Alex, Tammy, and Hector for their excellent performance at building 80 during the period of January 14-19 for their devotion and beautification efforts after heavy rain fall.

Trustee Pinkerton reported that the board has come a long way and have demonstrated transparency and has been more unified as a board; he values what Justin and Margaret have to say; values Justin Gatewood, and doesn’t want him to think that his voice is not heard, he had his concerns whereas most people on the board had concerns regarding the contract; he thought we addressed their concerns tonight; promises that anything that is important are going to be addressed.
