10.0 Chartering of Clubs

11.0 Advisor Forum

- Advisor Sewell:
 - ASU online is offering Bachelor degrees through a partnership with Victor Valley College. Fees have been dropped to $450 per unit. He needs two people to sit on the Finance Budget and Planning Committee. The College Council committee also needs a student to sit in on their meetings. Multidisciplinary Day is on November 13th. Club Rush is in two weeks. The Caring Campus committee will be greeting students next week, and they will be providing ice cream to students. September 11th set up will be next Friday. On August 30th and 31st, laying flags down will begin at 7:00am. September 1st will be the last of the set up. There will be a lot of volunteers.

12.0 Executive Forum

- Executive Senator John:
 - She completed her first set of name cards for September 11th. She completed her office hours.
- Treasurer Jenkins:
 - She will be finishing her office tours tomorrow. She worked the Life Long Learners event through Outreach today.
- Secretary Guillen:
 - She made the food cards for Club Rush, and has been working with the committee to plan for the event. She also made the presentation for Club Rush. She will attend the Club Rush committee meeting after the ASB meeting today. She is working on her second set of September 11th name cards. She apologized for not completing her office hours this week.

- President Reyes:
 - She did a last minute tour yesterday at the Logistics Airport in Adelanto. She RSVP'd for the Student Trustees Webinar. She has completed 400 names for the September 11th event. She will let everyone know what happens with the College Council committee.

13.0 Council Forum

- Student Advocate Fulton:
 - She completed her office hours. The name cards for September 11th are due tomorrow. She reminded everyone that starting in the Fall semester everyone is required to do 5 hours of office hours.
- Health Science Senator Trujillo:
 - He is finishing his office hours today. He is almost finished with the September 11th name cards.
- Activities Senator Rivas:
 - She finished her September 11th name cards. She completed her office hours. She wants to volunteer for Multidisciplinary Day. She cannot attend the Club Rush committee meeting today.

14.0 Foundation Report

15.0 Committee and Participatory Governance Reports

- Caring Campus:
 - They canceled their greeting table for next week in front of building 55 since expected participation is low.
- Strategic Enrollment Management Committee:

- They attended the Board of Trustees meeting two weeks ago.

16.0 2nd Public Forum (Limited to 3 minutes per speaker)

- Jocelyn Arredondo:
 - She asked a question regarding volunteering.

17.0 Mentor Forum

- Mentor Isbell:
 - He stated that he shouldn't be the first person to greet a student walking in. He stated he is tired of finding dirty dishes, leftover food, and trash throughout the office so he told everyone to clean up after themselves or the council will lose the privilege to eat in the office. He reminded everyone that the council can call him at any time for any reason, and also that everyone at this table is each other's support group. He reminded everyone to be mindful of each other's boundaries and to respect them. The ID machine will be very busy today and next week. Efficiency is important and mandatory. Do not retake pictures unless they look different from the picture in the system. Tomorrow is All College Day and Student Services will be closed - ASB is not closed but Advisor Sewell, Angela Perdomo, Andrew Caravella, and himself will be working so they need people in the office. Five office hours are a requirement when everyone signs up for ASB. Regarding campus tours - do not go to other campuses unannounced. Coordinate tours with Advisor Sewell and himself. President Reyes can appoint members of council to the participatory governance committees. He thanked everyone for writing the September 11th names.
