- John: I hope everyone had a great spring break, attended the concert and saw senator Caveyo there, did some office hours today, printed out ID's, I hope we have a good potluck and can't wait to see who wins tomorrow.
- Jenkins: Hope everyone had a good week, not sure how Black Student Success Week went, I know they have a gala tonight, hope you had good grades coming out of the 8 week terms, asked some questions about the Study-a-thon. Hopefully we can plan a get together and do something with students before we end the semester. Happy birthday Melissa. Hope everyone has a great weekend.
- Reyes: Attended the board meeting last week, still waiting to hear back on the scholarship, thank you for showing up, thank you for being there, Dr. Walden's wife said that she was proud to see everyone at the board meeting. We are requested to be there from 7:30AM- 8:00AM the latest. It will be windy and cold. You are ASB so we are expecting you guys to be there and happy. Lots of fun tomorrow, at least 400 students will be in the stadium tomorrow. Not just going to draw a ticket, there will be 5 random finalists for the ram truck, they will have 5 different keys, and there will be different prizes to go out. Also attended the burn out workshop, put on by senator Pulaski and senator Davis, attended Industrial discovery day and helped Andrew tour as he was taking pictures, attended the talent show and it was exciting. I attended the faculty event. This week after the meeting, there are 40+ faculty and 40+ staff that will be getting a graduation letter, that you as council members will pass out 2 each. Worked more on cords for the graduation ceremony, every graduate will have their cords personalized with their name and ASB on it. Consultation is next week, sent in my agenda item for the student consultation.

16.0 2nd Public Forum (Limited to 3 minutes per speaker)

- Robert Sewell: Everyone knows what SAP is? The chancellor's office wants to get rid of all the bad, the negative. The senate broke US history by just approving the PELL Grant, possibly doubling it. Those going on to 4 year, 2 year college, it will be going up. Evaluating colleges will be based on the earnings of graduates, the Grad fair is happening May 11th and the student health center will be opening on May 11th. For graduation, tickets for graduates will be getting 7 tickets and a parking pass for those graduating. Graduates that have a parent or other family members try to car pull. Parking is $15 for nongraduating people. Guests will show up at 4, graduates will be asked to be there at 4. The arena has open seating. Graduation officially starts at 6PM. Graduates should be there around 4. Apologize for not being here last week, had a week for family. Very nice presentation put on by Pulaski and Davis. Block one begins on Monday for registration. Keep an eye on when you register.
- Alexis Marino: I didn't know what to say for the first one, did ID's, was alone at one point and was super stressed out. Went to BOT meeting, Burn out workshop, Volunteered to help with Ram rush, Volunteered with
- Andrew Caravella: Totally forgot to mention, but hopefully those volunteering, please go to try and win something
- Kathrine Salazar: Attended BOT meeting

- Y'all are in so much trouble. You have no idea. For most of you who are graduating, you have 7 weeks, finals, tests, productions, art shows, 7 weeks. It's not a lot of time. I was in the office everyday this week, and I saw less than half of you, but I was up there throughout the week and didn't see many people. You need to schedule yourselves better so you're not going insane. I hope you all had a great spring break, I hope you got some rest, but looking at some faces it looks like some of you didn't get a break. Hopefully I will see some of you tomorrow for Ram Rush. Things we need to focus on are elections, if you want to run, think of the position you want to be in. Think about graduation gifts. I think it would be great for us to do something for the end of the year event. Something to give back to your students. We don't have to do anything, this is just a thought. More than half of you came to the board meeting and that was good. Got a lot of positive feedback.
