Subject: Cultural Diversity Training

Good Afternoon,

As we are all aware, the Victor Valley College's faculty, staff, and students consist of diverse cultures. As such, in order to effectively communicate and interact in our multi cultural environment as well as make individuals aware of stereotypes, perceptions and biases, all department personnel will be scheduled for Cultural Diversity training at the Museum of Tolerance in Los Angeles. Additionally, this training will assist our department members build self confidence when interacting with various cultures, minimize one way of thinking, improve understanding of various cultures and assist build better relationships between the faculty, staff and students. The training is offered 2-3 times a month (August - December 2010). We will be sending two employees per month beginning August 11, 2010. If you have any questions, please see me.

Thank you
